FISH AND WHISTLE

LYRICS BY JOHN PRINE

again, again, again

that we never have to do this we'll make a big wish and when we get through

eat everything
that they put on your dish

fish and whistle

I've been thinking lately
'bout the people I meet

MONDAY THRU THURSDAY

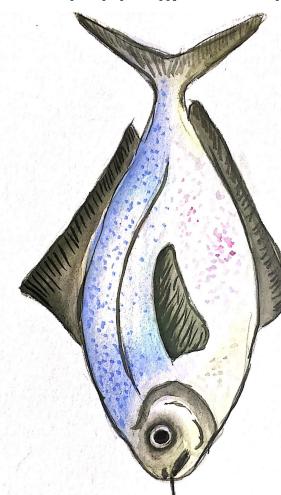

the way my ankles hurt
with shoes on my feet

and I'm wonderin' if I'm gonna see tomorrow

the carwash on the corner and the hole in the street and go fishing in heaven

then we'll whistle

till we both turn blue we'll forgive each other and we'll forgive you

you forgive us

for what we must do
father forgive us
